The Commission met with presenter Kay Brown, Christian County Clerk, for a discussion regarding pay for election judges. Discussion was held, and Clerk Brown noted that it's been increasingly difficult to recruit supervisory judges to work elections. Ms. Brown asked for a higher level of compensation for supervisory judges. The Commissioners asked if Ms. Brown's budget would allow for an increase, and Ms. Brown said she would inquire of the Auditor. Western Commissioner Bilyeu suggested increasing the regular judges' compensation to $130.00 (from $110.00) per day, and supervisor judges' compensation to $150.00 (from $135.00) per day. Presiding Commissioner Weter entertained a motion to table this matter pending the resolution of the question of budget between the Clerk and the Auditor, who will return with recommendations. The motion carried by acclamation.
