Shop Where You Live Campaign Update: Rachel Campbell & Stevie Barfoot with Show Me Christian County updated the group on "Shop Where You Live". This campaign encourages residents to shop in Christian County to bring sales tax revenue in. They had a soft launch back in November 2023 and met with local Christian County Chambers, the Historic River District and other officials. The next step will be a work session and standing meetings. Show Me Christian County is taking the lead on this and campaign packages to hand out are being put together. This campaign will need funding for marketing purposes and the Chambers and Cities have agreed to participate. Education is needed as to why it is important to shop local.

Marriage Proclamation: A Proclamation was presented by Rev Jerry Angelo & his wife Kate Angelo to the Commission that will acknowledge that February 7th-14th will be proclaimed as Marriage Week. This is the second year in a row that Christian County has recognized this Proclamation and help to support the movement to promote marriage and family.

Breakroom Remodel Presentation: Richard Teague-Christian County Maintenance Supervisor & Jillian Johnson-Decorating Den Interiors presented a Power Point on the remodel of the Historic Courthouse breakroom. This remodel will be in the current breakroom and adjoining office. Total estimate for this project will be $28,000. This will come out of the County budget; electrical & paint will come out of the maintenance budget.

Water & Sewer Change Order: Kim Hopkins Will & Todd Wiesehan presented an amendment to the 2 bridge abutments needed at our new Government Plaza location. Contractor Joe Warren has retired and the Change Order will move over to K&B who we are already contracted with. No additional funds needed for this project. Commissioner Jackson made the motion to approve, Commissioner Bilyeu seconded, all approved.

Maintenance 4th Quarter Report: Richard Teague presented his quarterly report (attached). General maintenance, special projects, new equipment and new projects for 2024 were reported. Richard reported that they are fully staffed, he has a great crew and will continue to answer requests as they come in.

Communications: Due to the recent weather, Commissioner Morris commended our Christian County Road Departments for all of their hard work.
